AGNES MONTGOMERY

The "other" Susan Montgomery remembers Agnes as a gracious lady, always ensuring everyone around her received her hospitality. I shall be looking for rainbows - Sue, you know what I mean.

I'm sorry for your loss, but I know she'll always be with you because you have so many wonderful memories. The obituary you wrote indicates the very close relationship the two of you had. Life is good because you and your Mom shared many adventures and created many memories..

Dear Sue. You have been the most dedicated, loving daughter to your Mum. You brought so much joy to her life! Agnes was always delightful- interesting, warm and loving to family and friends. Having known her since 1952, I know that a real spark will be missing from this world. Much love, Carolyn

Dear Susan, please accept my belated condolences from England. I remember my mother Gina talking very fondly of her aunt Agnes. I have photos of you both. It would be great if you can get in touch, as I am trying to make some other family tree connections. Fiona x
