Steve will be missed immensely. He was truly one of a kind. He pushed others to be the best version of themselves, to reach their true potential. He was wickedly competitive and strategic, giving anyone playing games with him a true run for their money. He was intelligent but also kind. Any speech he gave brought me to tears. He always spoke from the heart giving insights that only someone with a keen eye would notice. Steve, I wish we had more time with you, but I will cherish the years we had. All my love to Cathy during this difficult time.

Kathy and the Webb family, it is my sincerest condolences on the passing of a great man. I had the privilege of working with Steve and being witness to him growing as a professional and a business leader. We challenged each other at work, worked hard travelling on the road and enjoyed the benefits of playing hard after long days at trade shows. Steve was a fighter and a friend. While I didn't get the opportunity to connect much over the last couple years, I will cherish all the memories from the years we worked together.

My condolences to the family. I remember when I first met Steve, I was honestly a bit scared of him. No real reason other than he was my boss. That didn't last long though. It didn't take much time at all to see he was actually one of the most easygoing people to work with. He went from "intimidating boss" to "the coolest boss I've ever had" pretty quickly, and to this day no one has taken that title from him. That says a lot about the kind of person he was. I'm really sorry for your loss. He will be missed.
