As a retired Conservation Officer, I had the pleasure to call him Your Worship. I wish I could say that I liked every one of his decisions on my cases, but if I had, he would not have done his job and I would not have improved as an officer. I did really like seeing him on the bench for my cases. When he was there, I always knew that if I did my best work, he would ensure the result was appropriate, and that is all an officer can ask for once you get to court. He was definitely missed in the court when he retired. I am so sorry to hear that he is gone. I will look for his antique tractors in the next Elmvale Fall Fair Parade and it will make me smile, like it has for many years. Please accept my condolences

Roslande, Bryan, Bradley, Carolyn and families, Our sincere and hearty condolences are extended to all the family. Fond memories are what we have to remember and he has been in our lives too many years to mention. Roslande, you and Guy were as much friends as sister and brother-in-law. Many fun holidays were spent together! Both of our families grew together and made many memories along the way and always keeping our parents in our plans. Whenever we were in need of help Guy was always first on our doorstep, eg. Barrie tornado 1985 and other events. We will always remember the sing-songs and “Jimmy Brown the News Boy.” You are much loved and always missed but forever remembered. Virtual hugs, Tom and Rhodell

To the Maurice family please accept my condolences, I just found out we lost a great man. As a member of the Barrie Police Traffic Services I was in court many times before His Worship Guy Maurice. Often he would ask the clerk of the court to go off record so we could talk about my motorcycle uniform and the motorcycle itself. I think we talked more about policing than the trial itself. When he gave me a wink, i knew someone was going to be found guilty. Your Worship it was always a pleasure to have you on the Bench and somehow I believe where ever you are, you are holding court.
