To each of you, I am so sorry for the sudden loss of Jordan. As I heard the news instantly I was brought back to our childhood. Everything from first kisses to skating at the rink, hours touching teachers and keeping entertained during card night. I am so sorry you are all faced with such a tragic event. My heart aches for each of you.

My deepest condolences to Yvonne, Jack, and the Sjerps family. Jordan was the greatest friend and partner in crime you could ever ask for. I think there were weeks I spent more time in the basement at his house than I did at my own when we were growing up. His humour, charisma and kind nature always drew people in, and made you feel at home. He will be deeply missed, but never forgotten. Rest in peace brother.

To all in the Sjerps family, I am so very deeply sorry for the tragic & sudden loss of your son, brother, cousin, nephew. During the years Jordan worked with us in Calgary, he became not only a friend of mine but built lasting friendships with all of our staff who were all devastated to hear he had passed. I know there is little solace in words, but please know that he loved and always spoke very highly of his family, that our hearts and minds are with you, and that he will be missed but not forgotten.

Colin Bartram

November 29, 2018

Our family sends prayers and condolences for your loss. We like to think that the body is only the vessel for the soul and the essence of a person. The essence of that person now lives in the love and memories we share, and the soul is in God's hands. So as long as we have those fond memories, we will always have a part of them that never dies.

Gerald & Natasha Birch

Jordan we talked out of nowhere a couple weeks ago and I'm very glad for that. I have some great memories training you and Derek, then you getting your own crew and doing business. I'll never forget the time you fell down the stairs while on stilts because you refused to wear a belt while your pants were nearly sagging around your knees. Sounds rough but it was funny looking back. Great guy taken way too young, rest well.

David Amyotte
