There are no words that can express how hard this must be for you Rosemary. The loss of not only your husband but your friend as well. Memories of Michael will live on and hoping they bring you joy in this time. Wishing you peace to bring you comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. Michael will remain in our hearts forever. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love and support.

A wonderful talented man with an equally wonderful partner throughout his life. His infectious laughter along with many other things about him will be truly missed. In the approximate sixty years of knowing Mike, I never heard him be negative towards anyone. My deepest and sincere condolences go out to Rose and the family. Take comfort in knowing that Mikes' eternal destiny is in the hands of the one who loved him more than all of us, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear Rosemary and Family, I served as a Curator in the European Department of the Royal Ontario Museum when Mike was part of ROM senior management. He was always pleasant, fair and approachable. I think his attitudes brought out the best in other staff. Because of his superior knowledge of pedigreed dogs and his judging abilities, I asked for his opinion on a dog that was part of an Art Deco bronze figure group from the Bernard and Sylvia Ostry Collection. This was an important donation of 20th-century decorative art to the ROM. I quoted his expert opinion (properly footnoted) in the published catalogue of selections from the Ostry Collection. It was good to know that the dog was accurately depicted and as fine quality at the bronze figure. Thanks for being who you were, Mike! Warmly remembered, Peter
