We were so saddened to hear of David's death. He was the rock of his family and was a generous and loving host to our family whenever we visited. I remember he took much time and showed so much patience to our boys (the city boys!) as we toured the farm and the milking station. We remember him so fondly. He will be missed. We send our condolences to Myrna and the family and wrap our arms around them all. All our love from Ottawa, Ramine, Sven and boys (Rowan, Per and Soren)
