

SAMUEL THOMAS LANGMAN

Wendy and Family. We are so sorry to hear the passing of Sam. Hard to believe that the Lord needed another good farmer up in Heaven. When you see a rainbow over the farm and fields, I am sure Sam is looking down at you all and saying a pray for all. The United Church has lots another faithful follower. May you know are thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Robert, Denise, Zachary & Emily McLean

Dear Wendy and family. My heart sank when I received the news of Sam's passing. I met Sam and Luke earlier this year in my role as Ontario Regional Representative for Canadian Foodgrains Bank. Sam struck me as a true man of faith with a heart of passion and generosity for those struggling in life. He was a true friend and supporter of Foodgrains and would often step in to do a service or a talk about our work. As a fellow farmer and Foodgrains supporter, I am deeply saddened by this news and wish to express my condolences to you and your family. He will be deeply missed. May God give you comfort and peace at this time.

I'm so sorry for your loss. His presence has certainly made a huge impact on so many for so long! It's not many who would willingly work through a Bible study with teens, and his lessons have stuck with me to this day, as well as influence how I interact with teens in my life. It was certainly a life-long commitment, as each year he connected with my kids at the GRAIN booth at the Fall Fair, and my kids always looked forward to those interactions. His loss will be felt by the entire community for a long time, and I hope that it brings some peace to know that he was loved by such a great circle of people. May God's love and peace be with you during this time.
