Such a loving, beautiful tribute for a cherished Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, wife and of course more. Her amazing legacy will certainly live on in her beautiful family. My love and sincere condolences to all of your family, and to you Sharon and Bruce. She was indeed a special lady who will always be with you, just around the corner. Much love and light xo Brenda and Family

I'm sitting here looking at a photo in Gladys Train's book, Beyond the Builder's Plan, of a meeting of the Knox Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. Archie Wanless in 1978. Now that your mother has joined all the rest who have preceded her, the meeting can begin! My thoughts and condolences are with all of your family in your loss.

Hello Sharon and Bruce, my fellow dishwasher friends, I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your mom Sharon, I loved reading about her life and how well of a life she lived! Imagine witnessing the world we live in for a century, what a journey. I'm happy she's left you with such great memories. I hope we can stand side by side again soon and do our dish dances in Binion Hall. All good wishes, Deanna Rose.
