She will be missed. A hardworking, sweet lady. Had a wonderful visit with her a couple years back. She cut my hair sometimes when I was a child and then as an adult. Ate at The Cricklewood when she and Wayne had it. Rest in peace Marg. Bonnie McGill-Ploeg and family. Also Don and Lorna McGrath and the other McGrath sisters.

Marg was a part of my earlier years. She "hired" me to assist in her hair salon and treated me to my favourite marshmallow sundae and fries from Palmers.... she made me feel special. I got to know Amy at that time. She graciously styled my hair for my wedding and I was so appreciative. We are so sorry for your loss. She was a lovely lady. Joy Anne & Del

We were so very happy to have know Marg. She had a good spirit and she show this in all she did. She would often talk of her family with great pride. She was always willing to play badminton, tennis and pickle ball. She enjoyed all the people that enjoyed the sport also. She was willing to help out at Sunday masses as her faith was important to her. Marg you will be much missed and surely missed by your family. With Heart felt sympathy to Marg's family!
