I will be thinking of the Ritchie family in the days ahead. Bob was a generous gentleman and donated the wood necessary for the bee houses the Elmvale Horticultural Society had made to further our fundraising efforts. When I enquired when he would invoice our organization, he replied that there would be no invoice and we could have all the wood we required. How wonderful. My prayers are with the family in their grief and wish them happy memories of Bob. I will remember this lovely gentleman as a wonderful giving individual. Rest in peace Bob Ritchie! Marlene Mattson

Dear Ritchie Family, We are thinking of all of you at this time. We feel sadness at Bob's passing and a great thankfulness for Bob's friendship. Bob was one of our Site 41 heroes. His kindness and sense of humor saved many a day. Bob was also always driving his truck around and past the gates, giving those of us at the gates, especially when we were alone or there in the darkness of the night, a great sense of security. Just at our lowest or scariest point, Bob would suddenly appear in his truck and you knew you could count on him for any type of challenge. I called him the "Everywhere Man". He touched the hearts of all of those he connected with. Letty and John McNeil sense of security with his truck parked a short distance from the when we were standing alone at the gates, especially in the darkness of night. Just as the fear built, there came Bob driving around in his truck, and his presence and words alone would provide the security we needed. Just knowing he would be there, driving around, gave us the security we needed. It seemed Bob was always there driving around in his truck and whenever we needed something or were scared and alone at the gates. I called him the "Everywhere Man" When I stood alone at one of the gates, especially in the dark at night, especially at night.
