I'm so sorry for your loss. I keep remembering when I was little and visited Nanny Doan's for a week.. Uncle Keith took me for the day to Wasaga Beach. He took the time when he had so many other things to do to make a fun day and special memory for me.. He leaves many great memories that I hope will help you thru this difficult time.

James, Robert, Katie-Lynn, Mark, and family - I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Uncle Keith and his guitar, and when he took us to tractor shows, to see crop dusters, ice fishing, and to Wasaga Beach. He always had the best laugh! My thoughts are with you at this difficult time. xoxo

I was very sad to hear of the passing of my dear brother-in-law. He was a good friend and great brother to Glenn and I. He had a wonderful sense of humour and enjoyed being with his family. We will miss him very much.

James, Robert, Katie-Lynn, Mark, and family, So sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad & so soon after the loss of your Mom. We never really got to know Keith well but certainly in our few visits he seemed to be a caring life-partner to my cousin Myrna. May your memories of him bring you comfort. Cousin Ellen (Pender) Bauer
