Dear Helen and family, Sorry to hear of the passing of your mom. Over the past 12 years I have enjoyed my visits with your mom and hearing her stories and thoughts on the current events, her knowledge of plants. Would always have a laugh. She did have a wonderful life. Thoughts are with you all at this time. Marianne Tomlinson

I liked Eleanor. She always seemed so personable and had a great moral atmosphere. In caring for others. And that sly sense of humour, sort of talking out of the side of her mouth was always on point. My sympathies go out to David and the family. Ron Mills

Sincere condolences to the entire Hancock Family in the passing of your dear mother Eleanor. She will be remembered for her keen wit and sense of humor, her intelligence and her kind spirit. It was so nice that she could remain in her home with the help of her family and special caregivers. Eleanor will be missed by all who knew her. Her contributions in life were many. Sincere, caring thoughts to all. - Dianne McKnight

Ruth and I have cherished our relationship with Eleanor and a number of her children. We share your sorrow at her passing. Eleanor was so well read and informative that every visit was an education. Her words were always framed with her wit and humour. She has been an inspiration for family, friends and neighbours.

Eleanor was a role model to all the women of St. John's. Her deep faith, her sense of humour and her wealth of knowledge meant that we all looked forward to Eleanor's programs at our U.C.W. meetings. A visit with Eleanor was the highlight of our day. My deepest sympathy to her family who she loved to share stories of with every visit.

My condolences goes out to the Hancock family. I was the first caregiver to Eleanor. She was a wonderful lady. Full of life and a hunger for her books. We enjoyed doing crossword puzzles together. It kept her mind sharp. Rest in peace Eleanor ... You will always forever be in my Heart and mind. A day never went by that I didn't think about you. You will be truly missed by everyone that knew you. Alice Crossley XOXOXO

to all of the Hancock family (but especially David and Mary). Your Mom's passing while not, perhaps, unexpected (she was in her 101st year after all) did come as a surprise to me. As recent as last year, Ross Langman related how he, John Spring and one other had gone to her house and serenaded Eleanor on her birthday. Ross said she had come to the window to accept their musical 'offering'. You will all miss her (as, I'm sure, you still miss your father) but she had a long and fruitful life and for that we can give God thanks. My deepest condolences in your loss. Blessings

To the entire Hancock Family: Our deepest sympathy in the loss of your Mom. She was a wonderful person who always spoke, no matter when our paths crossed. I always remember her around St John's lending a hand where needed. I'm sure you each have many memories of her to cherish. May she Rest in Peace.
