Victor was a long time customer of ours at the garage. He always had a story to tell. A Unique individual indeed. RIP, Victor ☐

Vic was a long life neighbor. We grew up looking in the back 50 seeing Vic's homestead and farm. You'll be truly missed, especially the lengthy conversation from time to time in the field or at the co-op. A light in the barn could be viewed into the late hours of the evening. Being in rush, was never a pressing matter for Vic. Rest in peace my friend. Verna, Ken, Dan & Jerry Trace

My Mom, Vera Paul, shared a dining room table with Victor at King Place. She would comment on how Victor enjoyed his food and sometimes I believe Mom shared some of hers with him. While taking Mom for her ride around at Hillcrest, we would stop at his door and say "Hello". We will miss his smiles and hellos.

My sympathy to the Turner family on the passing of Vic. I have memories of Mom having Vic come to her place for a few Christmas dinners. I know that Mom would be sending her sympathy as well, if she were well enough to do so. Louise Carson and for her mother, Joan (Langman) Carson

Visiting Vic was always a light hearted experience. When we visited for the church, Vic would always give us a chuckle and his smile. He especially enjoyed talking farming with Ross and Sam. At church, he was everyone's friend.

I am so saddened to hear of Victor's passing. I met Victor at Hillcrest when my father was there. He was a very sweet man. I enjoyed talking with him and helping him when I could. He will be missed at Hillcrest for sure. Rest in peace Vic. Cathy Reid
