To Stan, MaryJane, Johanna and Ann, Linda and I send our condolences on the passing of our last Aunt in the Columbus clan. She lived a wonderful long life, contributed so much to Elmvale community, the CWL and her Church activities. Linda and I have vivid memories of Aunt Donalda babysitting very young Rebecca and Ryan in our Wasaga Beach when we went on vacation. God Bless her.

Great memories of playdates at the Columbus household. I will always remember the twinkle in her eyes along with her laughter when she agreed to allow me to hide my car in her back yard the day I was married - thus keeping my family and friends from sabotaging it in any way! Hugs from Fergus

We were sorry to hear of your mom's passing. My mom (Marg Bell) and Donalda went on a number of bus trips together. We were told the story of the time in San Fransico they bought souvenir t-shirts for all of us out of the trunk of a man's car. They would always laugh about that fun! Treasure your memories!
