Sending you our heart felt condolences, your mom was such a special lady. I loved the phone calls that we shared, she was so proud of all her children and would update me on the latest going ons. I'm grateful that I had the chance to know her more, she has a special place in my heart. Sending you all my sympathy and love.

To the Destoches Family, We are sorry to hear of Yvette's passing. She and Ven were good neighbours to my parents and as widows she and my mom shared good, long chats and each other's company from time to time. May the multitude of memories you all share bring you comfort and peace in the days ahead.
