Dear Pat, Don, David, and Dan.... These cousins have so many happy childhood memories with Jim, and his family. I remember Jim and I (Bonnie) sitting up in the big sprawling mulberry tree in the chicken yard between his house and the barn. We were hiding from others and enjoying the fruit all around us. And just like Aunt Marg warned us...too many mulberries make stomach pains and the "runs" (which happened soon!). Our heartfelt condolences to you all. We're praying for your peace and inner strength. love....Bonnie, Peggy, Betty, and Bill

We just learned of Jim's passing today from Bonnie and send our deepest sympathy to Pat and family. I (Janet) have fond memories of our early school years together in the one room schoolhouse, many family gatherings from birthday and Christmas celebrations and the famous Murray corn roasts in the shed. May your memories sustain you in the days ahead and give you peace and strength. Janet and Don
