Bonnie and family my deepest condolences on this sad occasion. I haven't seen Larry for quite some time but my memories remain vivid of the conversations and Larry's seemingly endless knowledge on many topics. It's hard sometimes to realize how time slips away and losses such as these are a sobering reminder of our fragility and the appreciation of those people who leave us with lasting memories.

I have fond memories of Larry and his wacky sense of humour, especially when we were growing up in Wyebridge in the late 1950s, ’60s and early ’70s. Larry, like all the Wyebridge kids then, used to hang out at my father’s garage (Withers BP). One blistering-hot summer Sunday we were all sitting around trying to keep cool, and Larry donned a full-length black raincoat, long blond wig and my dad’s welding goggles, and stood hitchhiking at the side of the road. We were all sweating buckets just looking at him. Boisterous laughter erupted when a concerned-looking middle-aged motorist pulled up to the pumps, pointed at Larry and said, “Is that guy for real?” He was for real “ in his very-Larry, one-of-a-kind way. Condolences to Bonny, brothers Doug and Roger, and all of Larry’s other family members and friends (including fellow Wyebridge Racing Team members Dave, Eric, Paul).
