

DAVID ANDREW CHABOT

My heart and healing thoughts go out to my extended family. I did not know David personally but I know what is like to lose a great man. May the love and joy you shared with him warm you during this hard road. Love never dies xox

I worked with David at GBGH and often had lunch with him in the cafeteria! He always have lovely stories to share and the best lunches! Loved hearing his stories of his travels to Nunavut, which is where we adopted our daughter Vanessa from. I still miss him here at work. He always spoke fondly on his family and loved to travel! xo
