Dear Edith and family, I just heard about John's passing. My heart goes out to you all at this time of mourning. I have many fond and grateful memories of John over the many years that he supported me to further my career. I also remember the generosity displayed by you and John during the several gatherings at your lovely home in Wymbolwood. I regret that I did not visit John more frequently in his final years but am thankful that my husband Tom and I did have an opportunity to share our time with him and you a few summers ago before John's health began to fail. Warm regards, Susan Langlois

Dear Edith, Maria , Nadya and family and friends of Jørgen, I send my warmest condolences and sympathy to you all. Jørgen was in my mind probably my fathers (Kurt Palsvig) best friend. I loved to see them together, because I got a glimpse of how my father must have been as a teenager. The glimpse they had in their eyes when they lovingly were teasing each other will be with me forever and stay in my heart. I often think of you and Jørgen when I think of my sister, because she was supposed to stay with your family for a year when she finished gymnasium, unfortunately you all know what happened. And lastly to Jørgen I want to say, you were an impressive man and human being, kind and noble and goodhearted and wellmanered and a lovely family man, you are one of my role models. With lots of love Mads

Dear Edith and family, I knew John through Connaught Laboratories. John was the Director of Regulatory Affairs and QC when I joined the department in 1985. John was very dedicated, he worked hard, setting a good example. He also mentored and supported his staff in their careers. I enjoyed working with him, and enjoyed his great sense of humour. I am very sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Irene Clement
