Our heartfelt condolences to Don and the entire family during this difficult time. It certainly sounds like she was the cornerstone of the family, and what a wonderful legacy she leaves behind. May all those cherished memories bring comfort and help keep the family traditions and her memory alive for generations to come. With warmest thoughts and deepest sympathies from the entire MCAP family, including Megan, Sushanta, Jennifer, Anna, Corey and Laura

Lana Kelly and Don and families. Jim and I were very sorry to hear about Shirley. It was so unexpected. Jim and Shirley were part of the original Orr Lake gang. We were friends with Shirley for many years. We did not see her a lot on the last few years but we will never forget her and miss her always.

We’re so sorry about your Mom’s passing and are sending our heartfelt condolences to all of you. We knew your Mom to always be active, dedicating her time to worthwhile projects and she LOVED the time she spent with her family and friends. Aunt Shirley was an inspiration to everyone who knew and loved her. She’ll really be missed, but her legacy lives on in all of you.

Lana and Joanne, Don and Deb, Kelly and Jeff, and all your families, we are so sorry to learn of the passing of your Mom and our Aunt Shirley. She will be deeply missed by all. As stated in the wonderful tribute to her life, she was a loving Sister, Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Aunt, and a friend to so many. Most certainly she was the Queen of the Hill and we all loved her dearly. You are all in our hearts during this difficult time.
