I was very sorry to hear of the passing of my cousin Bobby. I say with heavy heart that despite trying to come to Toronto this weekend I will not be able to make it due to restricted travel schedules. I pass on my sincere condolences to family and friends. Kurt, Judy and our boys Bobby and Ben will be thinking of you all.

I send my deepest condolences to my best friend Leigh-Anne, and her sister Dayle & their children, as well as their mother Linda. Bob was a great man, and a well-known man. He was always laid back, easy going & outgoing. He will always be remembered, by myself, by everyone. May Bob rest in peace, and may he look over his daughters and grandchildren & keep them safe, as he did here on this earth.

I'm so sorry Leigh Anne and Charlotte for your loss. I didn't know him well, and he always thought I messed up his mail, but it" sad to lose someone close to someone you love. You are all in Eric's and my hearts and I know that time will ease the pain. Buck up little cowgirls, all our love, Brenda and Eric
