My Auntie Maureen lit up a room when she walked in. She always put her family and friends before herself. A devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, sister, wife, Aunt and friend. A talented artist and someone who loved to travel. She will be sadly missed. My heart is broken with her loss. Forever in my heart and memories. Love you so much, Jul. ""

Maureen, my dear friend, a beautiful lady, we met when she first came with her family from England, we lived in the same apartment building and our children grew up together. Maureen was always the home maker, one day she baked 13 lemon meringue pies, yep, 13, and we decided to freeze them, well not a good idea, so there we were, knocking on doors of our building to try and give them away. We were in hysterics laughing all the while. We spent many years keeping in touch, watching our children grow. She was so proud of her son and daughter. Rightly so. Maureen always had a great sounding laugh, she made troubles fade away by just having a great sense of humour. She got me my driving lessons, much to my surprise, thought we were going shopping, no, in we went to get my license to learn how. We had more fun out there on the streets, she was instructing me all the way and we ended up in a coffee and donut shop after so we could calm our nerves. Always in kinks laughing. We always felt we were more than just friends, we shall miss her so much. Our love and sympathies go to the whole family, far and near, and we feel your pain. Bye Maureen, love you so much. Thanks for the smile on my face just thinking of you. love you forever Margaret, Ian and Debby and Rose.xx
