Doug and Sally, while it has been many years since our paths have crossed and I did not know Liam I know of the "holding your families close" that you speak of and in knowing this, can only imagine the heartbreak you are all feeling. My sincere wishes are that the love of family and friends will provide you with the warmth that only those that know of your lose can bring to you. Mignon

Dear Doug, Sally, Bronwyn and family... We had the pleasure of getting to know Liam after your family moved in down the road from us a few years ago. Liam was such a charming young man and we always could depend on him to cheerfully lend a helping hand whether the job was big or small. We enjoyed watching him float by on his stand up board or in the pontoon boat. The lake seems empty now. We miss Liam! Glenn and Ali xo

So sorry to hear of your tragedy..God must have had other plans for him. Liam definitely will be missed. If he was anything like his mom, dad and Grandmas Lenore and Marg and Grampa John he had an excellent work ethic. Sally, Doug, Lenore, John, Marg and the other family members I am extremely sorrow for your loss. May God hold you in His arms and help you through your loss. Doreen Turner

Having been away, I just learned of Liam's passing. I got to know Liam a little bit at the gym over the past couple years, and truly enjoyed our conversations. I saw him as a insightful, gentle and positive teacher of sorts - and am truly saddened by his loss. My heartfelt condolences.
