Judith, I can only imagine the enormous void your Mum's passing has left in all your lives. She brightened mine on many occasions. When my phone would ring and I'd see her number, I knew I would soon be hearing "Hi luv" and the time we spent together was like being 'home' again for a couple of hours. I will miss my Yorkshire friend. She spoke to your Dad's photo every day and it's comforting to know they are together again. The love story continues... Take care of each other and share all those wonderful memories. with much love to you all, Irene
