

WELLINGTON 'TONE' WEBB

I remember my Uncle Tone as a kind, soft spoken person. He took the time to have a conversation with you and really listened. And I will always remember Janes wedding. When back at Janes house I saw Uncle Tone in the trees with bucket in hand! I asked him what he was doing. He explained that morels (mushrooms) were only in season for a brief time, and asked me to help. Which I did and it still brings a smile to my face when I think about it. Rest in peace Uncle Tone.

Tone was a good man. I've worked with him, had coffee with him, talked with him and very much enjoyed his company. I'm sure he will be greatly missed. My sincere condolences to his family.

Dear Jane, Judy, Greg and families. Growing up your dad was like a second dad to me. Lots of sleepovers with old time movie nights of family films. I remember driving through the bush trails he owned from conc5 west where it ended, to Bluewater Beach. Always an adventure. He was a gentle and kind man with knowledge and skills for just about everything. His legacy will live through his family. Our sincere condolences to everyone. Carolyn and Brian

Please accept our heart felt condolences from the Brock and Marcellus families. Tone was definely apart of the the fabric of life in a small village and also shared a lot of that life with the Brocks (especially Jack and Ike) on the 5th concession of Tiny. He once shared with me that my Aunts Shirley and Lillian "walked him to school for his very first day". Also when the boys of both families were gone to war the ones left behind often shared holidays together!

Never was there a more, dear, gentle man. Just his pipe, and a sweet smile and a definite twinkle in his eyes, quietly there and we just loved him.

Sending my heartfelt condolences to the family and all who knew him on the passing of Tone. Wyevale has lost another very loved and deeply respected elder. A kind, gentle man with never ending stories of life. I enjoyed many of Tone's stories sitting at Billy Ord's kitchen table. May he rest in Peace .

Janie, Judy and Greg. - I was saddened to hear that Uncle Tone had passed. He was the baby of the Webb family and was the last one to leave us. He is now back with his whole family that we all miss so much. He was soft spoken like my Dad, his older brother Ted, I remember our family get togethers "over home" even though most of us remained in Wyevale and saw each other everyday and church on Sundays at our Little Methodist chapel. He helped to look after his sisters, worked with his brothers and provided us kids with lots of stories. I know you will all miss him but take comfort in the fact that he's back with Aunt Betty and his family.
