I am deeply saddened by the tragic passing of Andy, a friend and hunting buddy. It is incredibly difficult to find the right words at a time like this, as no words can truly capture the pain and sorrow that comes with the loss of someone so young and dear. Andy's passion for hunting brought countless shared moments of camaraderie and joy.. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this incredibly challenging time. Andy will be remembered not only for his love of the outdoors but also for the bonds of friendship he forged with those fortunate enough to share in his passion. My thoughts are with you. Rest easy buddy. With deepest sympathy, Mike Beck

I am so very sorry to hear about Andy's passing. I met Andy almost two years ago through the love of his life, Lila at the place where I now live/rent. Andy was a very kind and helping soul; always eager to help out anyone that needed help. I will miss his little quirks and his display of affection for anyone that crossed his path. He loved riding his motorcycle with his love, Lila, and later enjoyed his boat. Rest in Peace, Andy, it was a pleasure meeting and having a few get togethers with you.

It was with great saddest I received this terrible news. To the entire Sibbald clan, I extend my heartfelt condolences. His deep love of family and loved ones was always evident. Andy was quick to befriend and help others and gave me my 'hunting' name. This will remain with me for life. His love of family, hunting, fishing, and the outdoors were at his very core. He always generously shared his knowledge & top tips for success. To Andy's Mother and children, I hope in some small way our shared collective memories ease your sorrow and pain of Andy's untimely passing. He will long be remembered. Rest In peace brother.

Sincere condolences to the Sibbald family. We live at Skyline in Midland and were shocked to read about Andy's passing, who my husband spoke to probably just a day or so before his passing. As tenants of the building, it was always a pleasure to run into Andy, who always had a friendly smile, offered a helping hand, and will certainly be dearly missed by Lila. RIP Andy.
