I felt fortunate to have met Ron when I moved up here in 1986, working with his cousin John at his dad's garage. It was a comfort to know that I had such an honest family to turn to with automotive problems, but also someone to laugh and joke with at the ball diamond when we played slowpitch, or later as our boys were playing ball. He was a man worth knowing, and more than that, worth getting to know better. In later years we could always share what the kids were up to. He was a proud papa. I will sorely miss him. Ron was a kind, caring and community minded neighbour. I remember when my kids were small, he would come and get my car to bring it to the Service Centre and then have one of the boys bring it back to my driveway. He always had something positive to say with a smile on his face. He will be so missed. Our sincere condolences to Gaylene, Thayne and Travis and family. Margo and Miles Allemano
