JACOB CARL ARNOLD

We are heartbroken. No words seem sufficient. Jake had been a true lifelong friend with his wife Beth. They have always been there for us to celebrate joys, happiness and share our sorrows. We will miss you Jake. Our sympathy to Beth and his loving family..

Dear Beth I know your head must be spinning and your sorrow overwhelming right now. I also know that the support of your sons and their families will get you through these difficult days. I am so sorry to say that l cannot attend Jake’s service..l would so want to be there, especially on Joe’s behalf..unfortunately l have a bad case of Covid and this would not be possible. I also unfortunately don’t have your address as l would like to have sent a personal card and note…please accept my condolences. With sadness Susan Recchia

Jake and I met while working at NCR in the 80's. I left the GTA and had no further contact with Jake for over 35 years. It was a great pleasure to re-connect with him about a month ago. It was a shock to hear of his passing. Beth, I am so sorry for your loss. May Jake rest in peace, and may you and the family find peace and comfort.

Beth and Family, My heart felt condolences on Jake’s untimely passing. I’ve been out of the country since Jake , Guenter Wohl and I re-met on July 4th last month. I hadn’t seen Jake for about ten years and Guenter hadn’t seen him for at least 30 years. We were all ex-NCR Hr employees and had a strong bond of association, much of it an appreciation of each other’s sense of humour. Jake was a ‘Prince’. Strongly supported his HR associates and friends. He will be sorely missed. God speed my friend. Regards, Norm T
