PAUL JAMES "SHOE" CRADDOCK

Very hard to comprehend this tragic loss. Debbie, Jessica-Lynn and Marc, our thoughts are with you. To the Craddock family, you have many memories to share with family. Take one day at a time, 1 week at a time and know that your “village people” will rally around you and your families. Rest in peace, keep your stick on the ice and a horseshoe in your hand. With love and hugs, Kathy and Ed

Debbie, Jessica, Adam and family, Our hearts are heavy and we are saddened to hear of Paul's passing. We are thinking of you all at this time. Paul was tremendously patient and helpful as a goalie coach for Eli. I hold fond memories of the hockey tournaments last year and the fun we had as a hockey family at restaurants and in the hotel late into the nights. We were so blessed to have shared in Paul's experience, to get to hear his stories of the many years of hockey. His eyes were bright and full of happiness on the ice with Adam, Ben and countless others. We are lucky to be amongst that group. Hugs to you all, Sarah, Bob, Ian, Cole and Eli

To High Heel and family, we send our condolences. I remember first meeting Paul and how he introduced himself, Running shoe, the second son of broken arrow. Next time I met him I couldn't remember what he had said.. so I said Hi Shoestring?! And he laughed.. I forever called him that afterwards. The loss of Paul is a loss to the community. He was well known and always brought a smile and laughs with him wherever he went. He will be truly missed.

Debbie, condolences to everyone in your family. My heart literally, breaks for all of you! A mother should never lose a child. No one should lose their Spouse before they have shared most of the Golden years together. Children should never lose their guide in life, until they are ready to start their golden years. The most wonderful thing all of you have, is love for each other. As time goes by, the sadness will subside, and the memories will come, with smiles and laughter no tears.
