Just having heard the news, I am still feeling numb. I have only known Steve for around 10 years, and believe he is only one of two people I know that have reached the 5th Level in Maslow's hierarchy of needs - Self Actualization. His family and our community have lost a respected and loved member and mentor. Sad day indeed for a life cut too short.

So shocked and saddened to hear of Steve's passing. I first met Steve at Eastview S.S. as we were in many classes together and were a group of solid friends. Over the years, I would bring my intermediate classes to his various manufacturing open houses that school kids could tour. Steve and I met up with each other every so often and caught up on everything. He will be so missed. Rest in peace my friend. Gone way too soon :(

Steve and I shared our teen years and early 20's in the Apto area. We shared alot of teenage boy experiences. Some good, some not so much (lol). Gathering at the corner gas station was the hot spot at the time. We were always there for each other. In our mid 20's, life sent us in different directions. I will never ever forget. Dan

To Leslie, Margaret Ann and family. We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Stephen. By all accounts a wonderful husband, father, business partner and friend to all. Draw comfort in the Lord's promise that we will all be reunited with our loved ones in His Eternal Kingdom May God support and bless your family with love, faith and hope through this most tragic time. In your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brother, Stephen. . In this life you embraced him with your tender love; deliver Stephen now from every evil and bid him eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome Stephen into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen. The Ship I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other. Then someone at my side says: "There, she is gone!" "Gone where?" Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port. Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says "There, she is gone!" there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!" And that is dying.
