Sheila, Donna & Karen - So sorry to hear of Moe's passing. Will always think of him down at the ball diamond, keeping score and always a scratch ticket or two!!!! A permanent figure. He will be deeply missed, a man very fond & proud of his family. God only knows what mischief him & Lori will get up to. My thoughts & prayers are with you & your families at this time.

Dear Aunt Sheila, Donna and Karen, Sorry to hear about Uncle Morrie. I will always remember his caring nature and sense of humour while we were growing up. He was probably the first person to show off his partial denture to me! He cheered us girls on when we were playing sports but he enjoyed embarrassing us too. They were good times. May all these memories bring a smile to you and comfort you during this time of grief . I know he and Lori are comforting each other. God bless you and your family. Much love, Diane
